- Full payment must be received with registration to be considered "registered". No e-mail registrations will be accepted.
- Unless you have an emergency situation or have made prior arrangements with event coordinator, you are required to attend the entire event. If weather becomes a factor, the event coordinator will let vendors know to shut down. There are no refunds given for any reason.
- Any vendor selling food products must comply with Iowa Food Establishment requirements and register for a Temporary Food Establishment License for the event.
